

AIB-SE and The Asia Institute Global Business Education Scholarships 2015

Overview

To support the global competencies and knowledge of international business students, the Academy of International Business – Southeast and The Asia Institute are offering scholarships supporting global research and international experiences for students. $1000 in total scholarships will be awarded at the 2015 AIB-SE Conference.

Eligibility and Participation

- All submissions should be jointly submitted by a student and a faculty advisor.
- Submissions will be accepted from any student and faculty whose university of faculty member is a member of the Academy of International Business.
- Submissions will be accepted from any undergraduate, graduate or doctoral student who is attending a university in the United States and whose minor, major, masters or doctoral degree is the field of international business.
- Student applicants should be seeking to participate in a global learning experience in Asia in 2016. The global learning experience can be:
 1. Short-term faculty-led program (2-8 weeks)
 2. Semester or full year study abroad program
 3. International internship (6 weeks minimum)
 4. International scholarly research (4 weeks minimum)
- Student-faculty joint submissions should be submitted no later than 5:00pm EST October 10, 2015.

Submissions will be accepted only from students who have selected a global learning experience in a country different from their nationality and/or different from the country that issued their passport.
